SPRINGFIELD.

On account of the bad weather and coal shortage all the public schools have been closed for three weeks. The pupils of Brandsford High School regret it very much because this vaca-tion will put them behind in their examinations. The concert that was given by the Brandsford School Glee Club was a great success. The boys club sang exceptionally well and was enjoyed by all who heard them. Quite a large audience was present considering the weather. The program was as follows, with Mrs. J. L. Murray as directress;
